

Minister LEE WOODALL has spent his life dedicated to training, fitness, and athletic accomplishments. Born in York pa and grew up in Carlisle, PA, where Lee played high school sports. he played on 2 state basketball championship teams, which Carlisle at the time had won 4 straight State championships in a row.

Minister Lee was awarded a scholarship to play collegiate football at West Chester University. In his first year, he gained honors as a special teams player of the year. He went on to be named 3-time defensive player of the year and 3-time MVP. He was also selected for the West Chester University Football Hall of Fame.

His stellar college career led to a 6th round draft choice for the San Francisco 49ers. Lee spent 8 years in the NFL where he played 6 years for San Francisco 49ers, 1 year at the Carolina Panthers and 1 Year with the Denver Broncos. Lee was a starter 7 out 8 years of his NFL career.

At San Francisco He was a starting rookie during the 1994 season – and he made the All Rookie Team. That year, the 49ers beat the San Diego Charges 49-26 in Super Bowl XXIX, making Lee a Super Bowl Champion. During his 8-year NFL career, Lee was selected for 2 Pro-Bowls in 1995 and 1997 and was named All-Pro in 1995.

Lee Woodall; Minister, Community Leader, charitable sports coach, charitable spiritual coach, charitable relationship coach, charitable life coach, charitable master coach, charitable laser coach, charitable Group coach, charitable marriage coach, Health and Wellness ambassador, Leader in Safety in Youth Sports, and currently the Philadelphia NFL Alumni Chapter President.

He consults a company called Pros 2 Professionals where he Consults on sports training, combines, travel, business development, and sports scouting. IN 2021 Lee will be putting on his first NFL Alumni Destiny Bowl Camp powered by Pros 2 Professionals which will be played at IMG Academy in Florida.

Minister Lee also is a part of a non profit called S.O.Y. Ministries (Saving Our Youth) where he helps men, families, and former athletes rebuild themselves in the community, social media, resume writing, goal setting, and much more. Lee's non profit has allowed him to launch the first ever NO Excuses NFL Alumni Transition Boot Camp for retired NFL players, spouses or accountability partners. This will launch in 2021.

He is also currently writing a book with a Ghost Writer, called Transitions, which will include a work book of 10 former NFL Athletes. In the workbook the pro athletes take an exert of their life, dealing with their perspectives of transition with topics such as: Perception, self sabotaging, underlying purpose behaviors and more.

Minister Lee is not just a champion on the field but he is also a champion in life. Heloves speaking to youth, teaching corporate businesses on team, mentoring athletes both youth and professionals, ministering, and putting on his Charitable speaking tour of Dare To Be Different.

Minister Lee is married to Minister Terri Barnett-Matthews and has a blended family of 7 kids.