

Susan M. Coan

Region President, Atlantic City Electric

Susan M. Coan is Region Vice President of Atlantic City Electric, an Exelon Company. Susan manages public policy and relationships with South Jersey's government officials as well as with community, business, and nonprofit groups. Susan has worked in the electric utility industry for more than 30 years, building leadership experience in the areas of government & regulatory affairs, investor relations and communications. Active with a wide range of civic and volunteer organizations, Susan serves in leadership roles with organizations including the Chamber of Commerce of Southern NJ, the Nature Conservancy of New Jersey and the Southern New Jersey Development Council. She holds a degree in economics from Dickinson College and an MBA from Monmouth University. Susan is a life-long resident of Hammonton, NJ